CARNIVAL ISSUE 1960

Festivities Begin On Mountain

The camera catches a glimpse of a few of the carnivalers who took part in last year's Torchlight Parade up Mount Royal. (A map of this year's route is printed at the bottom of this page.) The parade traditionally marks the beginning of the Carnival.

The colourful events of this year's Mount Royal Night begin this evening with the Torchlight Parade. Flaming torches will be distributed among the crowd, who will begin the trek to Beaver Lake at 7:55 pm at the foot of Camilien Houde Parkway and Cote des Neiges.

Along with university and city officials and the Carnival Princesses, the marchers will proceed to the flood-lit Ice Palace, built through the generosity of Dominion Bridge Co., near Beaver Lake. There, Dr. F. Cyril James will officially open the thirteenth annual Winter Carnival.

OPENING

After the opening ceremonies, the entertainment begins. This year the entire ice show will be located in such a place that spectators will be sheltered from the wind.

Yvon Jolin, expert barrel jumper, will be the first performer of the evening. The next event will be a hockey game between the East and West Wings of R.V.C. Douglas and Wilson Hall representatives will then take part in a gruelling tug of war.

SKATERS

Leading amateur skaters Jean Wrigley and David Langille will demonstrate their talents, following which the climaxing event of the evening, the broomball game between the Student's Executive Councils of the University of Montreal and McGill, will take place.

The slopes of Mount Royal will then attract the crowd's attention, as the toboggan races between faculty and fraternity teams begin.

The last part of the evening will be the activities at the Chalet, where Mike Dodman's band will be heard, ending the affair with gay dance music. At the same time a brilliant display of fire works is scheduled.

Carnival Ball Will Dance To Lanin

The Winter Carnival Ball will once again be the climaxing event of Carnival weekend. This dance will be held at the Sir Arthur Currie Gym on Saturday, February 20, at 9 pm.

According to Chairman Douglas Mitchell, the response this year has been so good that even more students will probably seek entrance than last year, when hundreds had to be turned away.

LANIN FEATURED

Lester Lanin and his Travellers are the orchestra featured at this year's Ball. Lanin's band, since he played for debutante Barbara Hutton, has been one of Society's favourites. Among his illustrious clients are the Rockefellers, Mellons, Whitneys, Vanderbilts, Astors and Fords. He is also very popular at Ivy League Campuses.

His first record was waxed at the Monte Carlo Ball, held in honour of Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier of Monaco. Other Lanin disks include "Lester Lanin Goes to College."

Norman Richards, music director of the National Film Board, will be on hand to provide continuous music during the Lanin intermissions.

THEME

The theme upon which the decorations of the Gym is centered is Winter Garden. Le Reservoir (otherwise known as the BWF room) will be turned into a cabaret, featuring acts drawn from the Carnival Revue, the West Point Quarter, and former nightclub stars Chris Bryant and Allan Shiach.

Since some people felt that conditions at the Ball last year were a little too crowded for comfort, an effort is being made to utilize more dance space this year.

TICKETS

Tickets are available at $5.00 per couple, and are being sold at principle places throughout the campus. Any that are left will be on sale at the door. Ticket Chairman Jack Miller has, however, advised all who wish to attend to buy tickets in advance, as not many are expected to be remaining by Saturday night.
